

Let us build a world for children

The Pestalozzi Children's Foundation (PCF) is a Swiss non-profit organisation, which promotes peaceful cohabitation worldwide by empowering the most marginalised children and adolescents. The Foundation seeks to provide children and youth with access to holistic quality education and to strengthen their intercultural competencies. The Pestalozzi Children's Village in Trogen (Appenzell Outer-Rhodes) is at the heart of the Foundation and its activities in Switzerland and in twelve countries. Abroad, PCF works with local partner organisations to enable children to access quality education in primary schools. For more information, please visit <https://www.pestalozzi.ch/en>

In Myanmar, PCF works with local partner organisations to enable children to access quality education in public schools, particularly in rural areas. PCF in Myanmar contributes to enhancing inclusive and equitable quality education by strengthening basic skill development of vulnerable girls and boys in preschool and primary school living in geographically isolated rural areas stricken by poverty with limited access to inclusive and equitable quality education.
